Alice RoundUp to benefit Driscoll Children's Hospital

ALICE – On Tuesday, June 29, young 4-H members and the Jim Wells County Extension Office will team up for a great cause. The 23rd Annual South Texas Cattlemen's RoundUp benefiting Driscoll Children's Hospital will begin at 11 a.m. at the Gulf Coast Livestock Auction in Alice.

A variety of products and services will be auctioned at the RoundUp that will appeal to visitors, like ranching supplies, baked goods, arts and crafts, gift cards, barbecue packages and hunter's equipment. Young members of 4-H will offer a variety of homemade goods. All of this year's proceeds will go toward new medical equipment and other items for Driscoll Children's Hospital.

To make a donation and support local 4-H students and their life-saving efforts, you can visit the Driscoll Children's Hospital web site at www.driscollchildrens.org/roundup, call Driscoll at 361-694-6401 or call the Jim Wells County Extension Office at 361-668-5705.
