MEDIA ADVISORY

Driscoll cancer patients return Saturday after a week having fun at camp

WHAT: Forty-two oncology (cancer) patients ages 5-12 from Driscoll Children's Hospital will be returning with a week's worth of stories about their experiences at Camp Star Trails in Burton. Rock climbing, swimming, archery, cooking, fishing, kayaking, bicycling and horse riding are just some of the activities the campers participated in during their stay. The trip was made possible by proceeds from the Kiwanis Club apple sale held annually in the fall at Driscoll.

WHEN: 1 p.m. Saturday, June 26

WHERE: Driscoll Children's Hospital Day Surgery & Rehabilitation Building, 3533 S. Alameda St.

About Driscoll Children's Hospital ...

*"Improve the health of adults and you give them back their health...
Improve the health of children and you give them their life."*

Driscoll Children's Hospital is a 189-bed pediatric tertiary care center with pediatric board-certified specialists representing 30 medical and 10 surgical specialties offering care throughout South Texas, including Corpus Christi, the Rio Grande Valley, Victoria and Laredo. Each year, more than 100,000 children receive care through Driscoll, including the 40,000 patients seen at South Texas' first emergency room created specifically for pediatrics.
