MEDIA ADVISORY

Former Dallas Cowboy and NFL Hall of Fame member Randy White visits Driscoll Children's Medical Plaza-McAllen

WHAT: Former right defensive tackle for the Dallas Cowboys and 1978 Super Bowl XII co-most valuable player, Randy White, will visit patients at Driscoll Children's Medical Plaza-McAllen. White's visit coincides with his annual CPL Retail Energy-sponsored Big Man Camp at the Boys & Girls Club, which begins the next day. White is passionate about bringing fundamentals back to the teaching of football, while adding martial arts to strengthening and conditioning routines.

WHEN: 4 p.m. Friday, July 30

WHERE: Driscoll Children's Medical Plaza-McAllen, 1120 E. Ridge Rd.

About Driscoll Children's Hospital ...

*"Improve the health of adults and you give them back their health...
Improve the health of children and you give them their life."*

Driscoll Children's Hospital is a 189-bed pediatric tertiary care center with pediatric board-certified specialists representing 32 medical and 13 surgical specialties offering care throughout South Texas, including Corpus Christi, the Rio Grande Valley, Victoria and Laredo. Each year, more than 100,000 children receive care through Driscoll, including the 40,000 patients seen at South Texas' first emergency room created specifically for pediatrics.
