Children with heart disease head off to camp

ROCKPORT – About 20 cardiac patients from Driscoll Children’s Hospital will be attending the Fourth Annual Camp Hearty at Camp Aranzazu in Rockport July 25-28.

The children will participate in activities such as kayaking, swimming, nature hikes, fishing, archery, a ropes course and more. Staff from Driscoll will be accompanying the campers.

“This camp allows the kids to see that they are not alone in facing serious heart disease and mostly just lets them have a great time,” said Cathy Camp, cardiology nurse clinician at Driscoll Children’s Hospital.

About Driscoll Children’s Hospital...

*“Improve the health of adults and you give them back their health...
Improve the health of children and you give them their life.”*

Driscoll Children’s Hospital is a 189-bed pediatric tertiary care center with pediatric specialists representing 32 medical and 13 surgical specialties offering care throughout South Texas, including Corpus Christi, the Rio Grande Valley, Victoria and Laredo. Each year, more than 100,000 children receive care through Driscoll, including the 40,000 patients seen at South Texas’ first emergency room created specifically for pediatrics.
