Three Rivers RoundUp to benefit Driscoll Children's Hospital

THREE RIVERS – On Monday, June 28, young 4-H members and the Live Oak County Commission Office will team up for a great cause. The 23rd Annual South Texas Cattleman's RoundUp benefiting Driscoll Children's Hospital will begin at noon at the Live Oak Livestock Auction between Three Rivers and George West on Highway 281.

A variety of products and services will be auctioned at the RoundUp that will appeal to visitors, like baked goods, restaurant gift certificates, canned goods, garden produce and leather goods. Young members of 4-H will offer a variety of homemade goods. All of this year's proceeds will go toward new medical equipment and other items for Driscoll Children's Hospital.

To make a donation and support local 4-H students and their life-saving efforts, you can visit the Driscoll Children's Hospital web site at www.driscollchildrens.org/roundup, call Driscoll at 361-694-6401 or call the Live Oak County Commission Office at 361-449-1703.

About Driscoll Children's Hospital...

*"Improve the health of adults and you give them back their health...
Improve the health of children and you give them their life."*

Driscoll Children's Hospital is a 189-bed pediatric tertiary care center with pediatric specialists representing 30 medical and 10 surgical specialties offering care throughout South Texas, including Corpus Christi, the Rio Grande Valley, Victoria and Laredo. Each year, more than 100,000 children receive care through Driscoll, including the 40,000 patients seen at South Texas' first emergency room created specifically for pediatrics.
