Fiesta de los Niños nets more than $185,000 for Driscoll Children's Hospital's specialty clinics in McAllen

This year's 6th Annual Fiesta de los Niños was a huge success. The fundraiser, sponsored by Whataburger and benefiting Driscoll Children's Hospital's specialty clinics in McAllen, netted more than $185,000, surpassing organizers' goals.

“The outpouring of support for Driscoll and its mission in helping children is inspiring,” said Martha St. Romain, vice president of Development for Driscoll Children's Hospital.

“Fiesta de los Niños was a success due to a tremendous team of volunteers who are committed to have the best there is to offer in healthcare for the children throughout the Rio Grande Valley.”

Fiesta de los Niños was held April 24 at the La Muñeca Ranch in Linn and featured a barbecue dinner, silent and live auctions and live music provided by Scott Randolph and the White Lightning Band.

About Driscoll Children's Hospital...

*“Improve the health of adults and you give them back their health...
Improve the health of children and you give them their life.”*

Driscoll Children's Hospital is a 189-bed pediatric tertiary care center with pediatric specialists representing 32 medical and 13 surgical specialties offering care throughout South Texas, including Corpus Christi, the Rio Grande Valley, Victoria and Laredo. Each year, more than 100,000 children receive care through Driscoll, including the 40,000 patients seen at South Texas' first emergency room created specifically for pediatrics.
