

RESEARCH TASK FORCE AT DRISCOLL CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL PRESENTS:

Research Symposium of South Texas at Driscoll Children's Hospital

A continuing education program targeted to medical staff, residents and other health care providers.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

To improve:

- Knowledge regarding research methods and interpretation of research findings.
- Skills related to dissemination of findings of research and rare cases.
- Patient quality of care and outcomes through practical application of research findings.

RSVP to:

Maria Campbell
(361) 694-4117 or
maria.campbell@dchstx.org

Wednesday,
May 11, 2022

Noon - 5:30 p.m.

Presentations and discussion
Driscoll Children's Hospital Auditorium (1st floor)

Keynote Speaker: William E. Smoyer, M.D.

Vice President, The Research Institute
Nationwide Children's Hospital

Clinical Case Conundrum:

Learn from the rare cases we see in South Texas

I have a Research Idea: How Do I Proceed?

Expert mentor-led round-table discussion

How to Disseminate Research Findings?

Expert mentor-led workshop

Clinical Trials in Pediatrics

It is all about patient care

Continuing Education Credits

Physicians:

Driscoll Health System is accredited by the Texas Medical Association to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Driscoll Health System designates this live activity for a maximum of (five [5]) AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Nursing:

Driscoll Children's Hospital is accredited as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation. Driscoll Children's Hospital provides 5 contact hour for successful completion of this educational activity.

Chair of Research Symposium

Utpal S. Bhalala, MD, FAAP, FCCM

Members of Research Symposium Planning Committee

Lee Budin, MD
Mari Allison-Hoien, MD, PhD
Oluwafemi Ojo, MD